VESKI Innovation Fellowships (Non-Australian) 2010/11

Introduction

The VESKI Innovation Fellowships (Non-Australian) are awarded annually to outstanding individuals who wish to undertake research in Victoria in the fields of science, technology or design but are not Australian citizens.

Successful individuals can receive up to AUD$50,000 per annum for a maximum of up to three years. These funds must be matched with financial funding [cash] and in-kind contributions from a Host Organisation such as an Academic/Research Institution.

The funds are to be used to support the return of the successful applicant to work in Victoria.

The funds made available and the duration of the proposed fellowship is determined by the VESKI Board of Directors.

Evaluation and Application Requirements

The VESKI Innovation Fellowships (Non-Australian) are open to individuals who meet the following criteria in fields of science, technology and design specifically relating to ICT, biotechnology, design, advanced manufacturing, environmental technologies, or the enabling sciences and technologies.

In addition to the above named fields; the 2010/11 'Call for Applications' encourage submissions in the areas of:

- Clinical Research focusing on Health Outcomes ; &
- Renewable Energy Generation & Demand Management.

Eligibility criteria for VESKI Innovation Fellowships (Non-Australian):

- 1.1 Have worked outside of Australian shores for the past 12 months, and be domiciled outside of Australia at the time their submission is lodged.
- 1.2 Matched funding must be organised (or be able to be organised) from a Host Organisation, namely an Academic/Research Institution. The Host Organisation must be prepared to commit equivalent funding or greater in cash and in-kind. VESKI will call upon the candidate to produce a letter of support from the Host Organisation setting out the financial funding and in-kind contribution commitments. The candidate, if notified of a successful application, will have an agreed timeframe to secure and finalise Host Organisation arrangements. It is anticipated that this will be no more than 30 days from notification.
- 1.3 Outstanding achievement and capabilities in the fields of science, technology or design.
- 1.4 Three referees¹ nominated and who can be contacted for reference. (Applicants should ensure that each referee has been provided with a copy of their application).

¹ Referees should be able to assess your application and should not be from your proposed Host Organisation

- 1.5 Applicants are requested to produce a document no longer than 20 pages (including publications) demonstrating why they should receive a VESKI Innovation Fellowship (Non-Australian); how they would use the fellowship to enhance their research endeavours and what contributions and benefits this would bring to the State of Victoria. The format of this application is set out in the VESKI Innovation Fellowships (Non-Australian) Application Form.
- 1.6 The VESKI Innovation Fellowship (Non-Australian) must be taken up within one year of the award.

Assessment Criteria and Selection

Applications will be screened for eligibility on the basis of status at the time of application. All eligible applications for the VESKI Innovation Fellowships (Non-Australian) will be considered by the VESKI Selection Panel.

The VESKI Selection Panel will be drawn from the VESKI Board of Directors or a Sub-Committee of the VESKI Board which includes leading members of Victoria's science, technology and design sectors. The VESKI Selection Panel may draw advice and seek assistance from appropriate specialists in the fields of the application.

The VESKI Selection Panel will assess applications against the following key criteria:

- Outstanding achievement in their field;
- International recognition and standing in their peer group;
- Outcomes relative to opportunities;
- Potential to contribute to fostering a culture of innovators across the State of Victoria;
- Potential benefits to Victoria's knowledge economy;
- Potential to develop relations with an industry sector;
- Ability to contribute to public benefit; and a
- Capacity to disseminate knowledge and develop a skills base across Victoria.

These criteria could be met, for example, by:

- Demonstrating linkages to Victoria's innovation & knowledge base or technological strengths;
- Plans for commercialisation of their planned research.

The VESKI Selection Panel will, in its absolute discretion, select successful candidates of the VESKI Innovation Fellowships (Non-Australian) on the basis of the key criteria. The recommendations of the VESKI Selection Panel are final and challenges will not be considered. VESKI reserves the right not to make awards in any year.

Each applicant shall give permission for details contained in the application to be released to the members of the VESKI Selection Panel and referees (both those nominated by the applicant and external referees) for the purposes of the selection process.

Successful applicants should note that in the event of an award of a VESKI Innovation Fellowship (Non-Australian), a description of their proposed research project will be publicised.

Notification

It is anticipated that applicants will be notified of the status of their application no later than 17th December 2010.

Obligations of Winners

VESKI's principle objective is to enhance Victoria's intellectual capital in science, knowledge and innovation for the benefit of the Victorian public.

As a VESKI Innovation Fellowship (Non-Australian) recipient you will be called upon to support achieving this objective.

It is expected that the VESKI Innovation Fellow (Non-Australian) will take advantage of any opportunities that may present through their public role or through the media to acknowledge VESKI's support and role in the Victorian community.

Applications

Applications should fully address requirements (1 – 13) in the Application Form. The VESKI Selection Panel will only consider information provided in the application and supporting documentation.

For advice or further information regarding applications, please contact Ms Julia Page, CEO, on telephone +61 3 9635 5700 or by email julia.page@veski.org.au.
